Lonely Eagles: The Story of America's Black Air Force (Tuskegee Airmen) in World War II Robert A. Rose

"LONELY EAGLES is in no way intended as a definitive history of the Tuskegee story. Volumes could be written on the subject; however, to date, no one has...The names, places and incidents included are as historically accurate as research could provide. The selection of material is no more or less significant than that which has been excluded, but merely serves as examples which may hopefully answer questions regarding the controversy, misunderstanding and gross inaccuracies surrounding the role of the black person in the days of the segregated U.S. Army Air Forces." Thoroughly photo-illustrated.
