Granted his freedom, the mysterious prisoner Conall, promises to take Catriona away and protect her from danger. He leads her to his home in the mountains, where the rest of his clan resides in secret. The two are instantly drawn together, sparking a romance that Catriona didn't believe possible after her painful marriage. But Conall and his people appear to be hiding something from her. As Hector's army approaches, will Catriona be able to live with Conall's true identity or has her new life already ended before it has begun?
