In the fantasy novel, Night Fell, Morning Rose two star-crossed lovers embark on a romantic journey from ancient times to medieval England, through early America, and the Holocaust in Poland before finally reaching their destiny in today's world. Verna is a respected medicine woman and teacher in her ancient village and, as a result, she is a forbidden beauty. When she unexpectedly meets Dror, a ruggedly handsome warrior by the clear, blue waters of a local river, they immediately fall in love and their passion for each other drives their every thought and action from that point forward. Because Dror has emptied her of her innocence, Verna must now sentence her new lover to execution. Already convinced after just one encounter that she loves him, she agonizes over how to rescue him from his unfair fate. And so begin the mystical revelations that surround these two lovers as they continue to meet over the centuries but for one reason or another, cannot find a way to be together forever. Dror and Verna must persevere through incredible danger, weather catastrophes, horrifying experiences, and death in order to reach their destiny-no matter what it holds.
