The Name is a lightning rod because The Name represents the division between good and evil. God and Satan, light and darkness, righteousness and sin, heaven and hell. The Name shouts out a choice: When will you serve, give your life to, depend upon? Rebellions, self-willed, sinful people want to retain the right to decide themselves what they will take. Speaking on His behalf, the apostle Peter said, "There is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." Jesus is gentle, but he is not weak. He loves the sinner, but intolerant of sin. He is not a negotiator. He is Lord! It is bristling truth that invites intolerance toward Christians. Jesus did not say, "Do your own thing: all roads lead to God." That would have made Jesus "politically correct," but Jesus is not politically correct. HE IS LORD.
