“What could the harm be? We were buddies, we had been buddies for a while. I won’t tell anyone if you don’t.”

Jaden and James had been friends since middle school. They did everything together when they were younger and still hung out together. They loved to work out together and would go out at night to pick up women.

One day before they were about to go out, Jaden would cross the line with James and proposition him. Neither of them had ever been with a man before, but neither seemed to object to the idea either. The two would delve into a world they had never thought of before and the results would be hot and spicy.

How much they liked it would shock them both, but would it come at the cost of their friendship?
