Clea Kellen is the owner of Jamesburg's most popular daycare. And on top of that, she's a lithe, witty, pointy-eared lynx shifter whose biological clock is tick-tick-ticking away.

She's part-time mama to a gaggle of bouncing shifter babies... but a mate? For Clea? Who has the time! A family? Just a dream. That is, until she catches a glimpse of a golden bear with pale brown eyes, watching her in the distance, and all at once, her stomach gets tied up in the best kind of knot.

Bear-shifting, rogue biker Orion Samuelsson is on the run and nursing more than a little bottled up rage. For years, he's been haunted by the cruel, brutal leader of his old club, the Dirty Devils. Love? Happiness? All distant fantasies. That is, until he lays eyes on a gold and black lynx-shifter dashing through a river.

On a daycare camping trip, Clea's whole world – in the form of a giant fir tree – comes crashing down. She dives to cover one of her cubs, sure she's done for. When she finally opens her eyes, she can't believe the massive, golden bear standing in only feet away with fire in his eyes and a tree on his back.

As he stares into Clea's soul, straining under the fallen fir, Orion's buried desire for a mate, and a family to call his own, burns deep in his heart. Right then, he knows he's found her. He knows he won't rest until she's his, until he possesses her, takes her for his mate... forever.

But, with Orion on the run from his former gang, and Clea's brain telling her to put on the brakes while her heart is screaming for her to hit the gas, will these two fated mates give in to love... and to each other?
