Catholic New York City (Images of America)

Richard Panchyk, Foreword by Edward Cardinal Egan

Catholic New York City (Images of America) Richard Panchyk, Foreword by Edward Cardinal Egan
Catholic New York City celebrates the religious and cultural life of one of the largest Catholic populations in the world. The first Catholic church was founded in the 1780s, and the diocese was subsequently founded in 1808, when there were only a few priests in the entire state. The 1879 completion of the country's best-known Catholic church, St. Patrick's Cathedral, was a crowning moment in New York City's Catholic history. Between 1850 and 1900, the Catholic population of New York City grew from 200,000 to more than 1.2 million due to a tremendous influx of Irish, German, Italian, Polish, and other European immigrants. Throughout the last 200 years, the city has been home to a wide range of fascinating Catholic personalities, places, and events.
