Crocodile Rock Julie Napier

After a horrendous incident they never speak about, resident New Yorkers Corey Thomas and her younger brother find themselves at their quiet grandmother's farmhouse in Beechnut, Wisconsin. Corey, a dancer, finds a secret space and revels in the stolen moments of freedom she spends there. Lucas Walsh, deliberately awkward outcast, finds his direction when he sees her dance and forges the first-and only-friendship he will ever need. Ghostly figures in the fog, a nearly twenty-year-old disappearance, and dreams of the future beyond Beechnut guide them through the summertime in a winter place, before Corey's unforgettable past crashes down around them. A ghost story. A mystery. The first installment to one of the greatest love stories of our time. Crocodile Rock.
