507 Quotations on the topic of love from the spiritual classic A Course In Miracles

A Course In Miracles is a beautiful book filled with wise, poetic, and moving passages. But it can also be overwhelming and complex at times. I have found that, when studying A Course In Miracles, it is often helpful to focus on one topic specifically and learn as much as one can about that topic. To this end, I have selected 507 of the most useful and insightful quotations on the topic of love from the Course. The quotes cover, in brief form, almost everything that the Course has to say about the topic. If you find a particular quote that appeals to you, I encourage you to find the larger passage in the text – I have included the standard reference for each and every quote in this book for exactly that purpose – and study the context in which it is found.
