Aquaponics: How to Do Everything - from Backyard Setup to Profitable Business David H Dudley
David Dudley, PE has invested years in aquaponics research, has owned and operated a commercial nursery for the past decade, is a professional licensed engineer, served as Construction Manager of the Oklahoma Aquarium, served as the Engineering Manager of the nation's largest aquaculture caviar producing operation, designed a $5M aquaculture farm for white sturgeon, and currently serves as an aquaponics consultant. He has helped many others develop successful aquaponic operations of all sizes, and has now prepared this wonderful resource for the do-it-yourselfer, and for those that may not be able to afford a professional aquaponics consultant. This book (how-to-guide) consists of three very important sections: • Everything You Need to Know About Aquaponics •How to Set up & Operate an Aquaponic System of Any Size •How to Operate a Successful Commercial Aquaponics Business Within these sections you will be provided everything you need to know, in an understandable, easy to follow approach; so that you can enjoy environmentally-friendly sustainable farmed food, consistently feed your family plentiful healthy organic low cost food, and earn as much extra income as desired (the sky really is the limit). Best of all, this book will show you how to accomplish these objectives in the most efficient way possible. Aquaponics truly is a worthwhile and rewarding endeavor. Fresh Organic Vegetables and Plentiful Healthy Fish Feed Your Family Healthy Low Cost Food, Barter and/or Sell Surplus Beginning Basics to Operating a Profitable Commercial Business Everything You Need to Know about Aquaponics Expensive university courses and lengthy on-site training workshops that cost thousands of dollars do not provide as much valuable, comprehensive material, as presented in this a user-friendly 'how-to' book.
