Fyodor Dostoyevsky

White Nights: Short Story Fyodor Dostoyevsky

A young, lonely man strolls the streets of St. Petersburg contemplating his solitude when he happens upon a young woman in tears. While escorting her home, the two strike up a conversation and soon become friends, meeting up at night to share their stories. When the young woman, Nastenka, explains that she was crying because she had been waiting for her fiancé who promised he would be back to marry her, the young man, despite his growing feelings toward her, promises to help her locate her beloved.

“White Nights” is considered to be one of Fyodor Dostoevsky’s best short stories and has been adapted numerous times for film in various languages.
