This is a catalogue raisonne of the works of sculptor H. C. Westermann. It comprises the entire catalogue to a new exhibition (also being published by Abrams), as well as a catalogue raisonne on every one of the objects (as opposed to works on paper) Westermann produced. The work of H. C. Westermann (1922-1981) encompasses defining issues central to the twentieth century. His works, such as The Death Ship sculptures often address wartime service, and share themes such as anxiety in the nuclear age and the artist as an outcast and an outsider.
