After her breakup with Blane Kirk, Kathleen Turner is left to pick up the pieces. She's just not sure that's something she can do in Indianapolis. She's contemplating a move to Chicago when Kade Dennon returns to her life. Blane's brother is the only one who understands what Kathleen has been through. He offers a sympathetic shoulder for her to lean on and more. Will Kathleen take the offer Kade makes and stay? Or has Indianapolis and its proximity to Blane become a place she can no longer tolerate?

A note from Allyson: I really love Tiffany Snow's writing, and The Kathleen Turner series touched me emotionally. With a couple of years' experience writing, I was excited to take a shot at this Kindle Worlds fan fiction. This novella starts off after Blane and Kathleen's engagement has broken off (after the end of the third book in the series, Turning Point). It's intended to be an alternate ending (for those who are "Team Blane") to what happens in books four and five.
