Walk With Me Ronald A. Mosley

Walk With Me is a collection of weekly columns written by Reverend Ronald A. Mosley for a Canadian newspaper over a 30 year period. These articles offer insight into Ron's faith and his daily observations of his life's journey. These reflections are a mixture of hope, inspiration, and history. Ron experienced war from the front lines, having served as Chaplain of the 106th Infantry during World War II and the Battle of the Bulge. He later served as a minister for different New England churches. Ron is an expert on reflecting and interpreting world issues, then adding his perspective in light of God's teachings on the observations presented. In Walk With Me, Ron explains history, traditions, and everyday events, and through his wisdom reminds us of the morals and ethics we were taught. His spiritual teachings focus on peace, love, and brotherhood. Ron's education and wisdom remind us what humanity can achieve and give us inspirational tools to endure whatever life gives us. As you journey through this book, please enjoy your Walk With Me.
